In July the NHS is 75 years old.

This is a good time for us to celebrate what the NHS has done.

It is also a good time to think about what we want from the NHS in the future.

This work is called

NHS@75

This will help the NHS to shape the future.

The NHS Assembly leads the work on NHS@75.

The NHS Assembly is a group of people from across the health and care sectors.

They advise the bosses of NHS England – what we call the NHS England board.

NHS Assembly members include:

NHS bosses

NHS staff

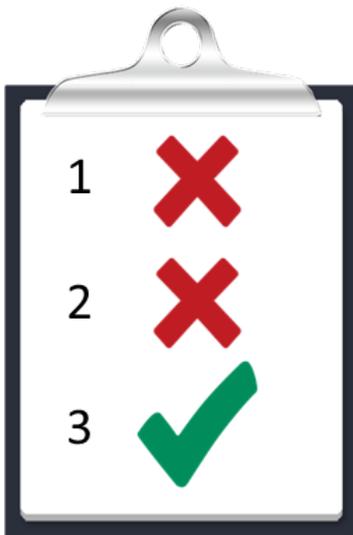

Patients

People from charities and community organisations
